

I am concerned that LPFM stations will impinge on the benefits provided by FM translator service. Many communities do not have the population base to support all genres of music. FM translator service gives those communities the opportunity to receive a wider variety of music. LPFM could greatly reduce that resource.